ON Helix Student Bursary Read more...

We are delighted to be continuing with the 'ON Helix Student Bursary' to enable company delegates registered to attend ON Helix 2023 on 3,4,5 July to nominate a student they would like to receive a free digital pass to attend the event.

As an 'Industry Buddy', at no additional fee, you can demonstrate your commitment to the industry's future by helping to attract and nurture the future workforce it will require. For the student, this is a great opportunity to network with other delegates and gain insight to the industry trends, challenges and career opportunities they may like to explore.
