Welcome to this month's One Nucleus eNews. Our chance to highlight some of the upcoming engagement opportunities for our network, share some insights our members are providing and provide some feedback on recent activities.

It would be impossible to include everything in one e-newsletter, with so much great news, expertise and opportunities we could list. You can be alert to everything however by regularly visiting our website, following us on LinkedIn and Twitter and checking out the latest updates from collaborators such as Business Weekly.

Of course, if as a One Nucleus Member you would like us to amplify your news, feel free to submit your story to our website newsfeed and/or tag us on your social posts and we will share onwards.

Register as a website user to join our mailing list and you won't need to miss a thing!
